

Textual Variants
1 John 5:14-17

5:14 From the 5th century, a few manuscripts replace “we have” with “let us have.”

From the 5th century, some manuscripts replace “we ask anything” with “whatever we ask,” and from the 9th century, a few other manuscripts read, “what we ask” or “if we ask”.

In the 5th century, one manuscript replaced “his will” with “his name.”

5:15 From the 10th century, two manuscripts replace “we have asked” with “we asked”

From the 5th century, some manuscripts read, “with him” (preposition para + genitive) instead of “from him” (preposition apo + genitive). One 12th century manuscript reads “(at) him” (pronoun in the dative case with no preposition).

5:16 From the 10th century, two manuscripts replace “those who” with “he who.” One 5th century manuscript altered “those who commit sins” to read, “those who do not commit sins.”

5:17 One 12th century manuscripts replaces the negative “not” (ou) with another word (mé) that has the same meaning, and from the 9th century, a few manuscripts have no negative “not.”