Satan entered into Judas Iscariot, one of the twelve. He left to consult with the chief priests and the captains about how he might betray Jesus to them. He said to them, “What will you give me if I hand him over to you? ... When they heard this, and promised to give him money. He agreed.

#134 When the first day of the Feast of Unleavened Bread arrived—the day the Passover lamb had to be killed—the disciples came to Jesus. He sent Peter and John, telling them, “Go and prepare the Passover meal for us.” When it was evening, Jesus came with the twelve. At the appointed time he reclined at the table with the apostles. He told them, “I have earnestly desired to eat this Passover with you before I suffer. For I tell you I will not observe it again until it finds fulfilment in the kingdom of God.” Then he took the cup and gave thanks, and said, “I tell you I will not drink at all from the fruit of the vine until the kingdom of God comes.”

The Kingdom in Scripture

- 1 Eternal: God reigns!
- 2 National: Israel under Torah law.
- 3 Divine: King Jesus “amongst you”.
- 4 Spiritual: Willing submission to Christ.
- 5 Messianic: “1000 years” on earth.
- 6 Everlasting: New heaven and earth.

#135 Jesus ... got up from the supper, took off his outer clothing, and wrapped a towel around his waist. Then he poured water into a basin and began to wash the disciples’ feet, wiping them with the towel around his waist. He said ... “You also ought to wash each other’s feet. I gave you an example — you should do as I have done to you.”

#137 As they were eating, Jesus took the bread and blessed it. When he had given thanks, he broke it and gave it to the disciples. “Take it and eat it,” he told them. “This is my body, which is given for you. Do this to remember me.”

- Bless: Consecrate to God.
- Thanks: Greek, eucharist.
- Remember: The ‘new’ Passover lamb.

In the same way after the supper he took a cup. When he had given thanks, he gave it to them and said, “Drink from it, all of you.” And they all drank from it. ...

He told them, "This cup which is poured out for you is my blood of the new covenant, which is poured out on behalf of many people for the forgiveness of sins.

The New Covenant

"This is the covenant that I will make... I will put my law within them, and I will write it on their hearts. ... They shall all know me, from the least of them to the greatest, declares the LORD. For I will forgive their iniquity, and I will remember their sin no more." Jeremiah 31:31-34
