

14 ACTIVITIES THAT KEEP DISCIPLES REPRODUCING
AND CHURCHES MULTIPLYING

August 2010

1. Pray often about every need and opportunity, in groups and alone, expecting God to answer.
2. Let ordinary folk keep taking the original Good News into the homes of friends and family.
3. Show every church how to start many, new, little churches anywhere, especially in folks' homes.
4. Have every leader find, empower and mentor four 'generations' of new leaders of new churches.
5. Authorize every believer to baptize those who repent, and to celebrate the Lord's Supper with them
6. Experience the Presence of Christ in gatherings, through the Lord's Supper and through spiritual gifts.
7. Teach all to obey the commandments of the Lord Jesus Christ, before every human tradition.
8. Keep training new leaders by mentoring them, listening, planning, learning and practicing with them.
9. Write brief, practical, training lessons that help new leaders meet their churches' urgent needs.
10. Let churches send missionaries and evangelists to neglected communities and ethnic groups.
11. Employ only methods and materials that everyone can afford, can imitate and can teach to others.
12. Judge every activity by the New Testament, and set only requirements found in the New Testament.
13. Monitor all outcomes, providing easy ways for all workers to report progress regularly.
14. Beware of outsiders who want to control you, and avoid becoming dependent on others' money.
