Although this book focuses on blessings and benefits of small house churches, we praise the Lord for those big churches that stand as firm, long-term lights for the gospel in communities throughout the world. Yet, for every big, God-honoring church, our world also desperately needs hundreds of little churches.

Principle #1 - Think Small

A little house church can better . . .

Benefit from each other's spiritual gifts by having every believer serve others. Some gifts help one another to speak words of encouragement from God's Spirit; others help them to serve each other practically.

Find unconditional love in an intimate community by serving, teaching, helping, counseling, encouraging each other.

Transform character and create hope in yourselves by helping each other repent when wrong, forgive when wronged, pray for each other, and teach one another from the New Testament. Prepare a "tick list" of these items for your flock.

Claim authority over darkness and temptation by praying to God in Jesus' name and resisting together Satan's lies and temptations.

Make the promises of God come true by agreeing with one another when praying to God in faith. Praying privately in big churches, some feel, does not have the same intimate impact.

Start Churches Now

Tap into supernatural power by obeying Jesus' commandments in the same way that the first followers did. Do so practically into the lives of others.

Maintain your own cultural identity and values while serving Jesus together.

Hide from hostile political and religious authorities by staying small, employing low-profile methods, moving locations often and staying within the audience culture group.

Experience the real presence of Jesus through answered prayers, the Lord's Table, testimonials, forgiven sins, the filling of the Holy Spirit.

A little house church can better avoid . . .

Impersonal church “services.” As we gather in little churches, we can see and speak with one another, making everyone welcome and showing kindness.

Religious discrimination. Persons from any ethnic and religious background can worship Jesus in new little churches. Your friends, family and neighbors can come without fear.

Passively watching and listening. Everyone can participate actively in a little church, if they wish.

Non-relevant sermons. Leaders of little churches are our own friends. We can talk freely about anything that we find helpful and interesting. Also, occasional foreign identity issues, if the leaders are from abroad and possible culturally-offensive worship practices.

Expensive buildings, equipment and employees. New little churches do not cost any money, so we can use our funds to help the poor and needy.

Theological controversy. In little churches, we learn Jesus’ teachings and follow the New Testament without disputes over many of the minor, less vital, issues. Small churches place focus on an orientation first to Jesus as Lord, with less emphasis on the theological controversy.

Our doubts about the truth and reality. Experiencing the things Jesus taught about gives us a firm hope.

Unnecessary visibility in times of persecution. Jesus said that you should flee persecution, if you can. Avoid loud, out-of-doors activities, and put up no adverts and public signs.

Start Churches Now

Compare these above concepts to the Scripture: Are they Biblical and imitate-able?

How can a leader with a small flock APPLY this? When, where and with whom?

How can you train others to apply this?

Briefly, write in your own words the content, application and implication of these above guidelines.

Principle #2 - Minister with Urgency

Why it is urgent for you to start a new little house church?

Traditional churches cost too much to start and maintain. Where thousands are turning in faith to Jesus, hundreds of new churches must be started, now. Many believers cannot afford big churches, or they prefer to use their money to help the poor and needy.

False religions and philosophies are spreading fast, and there are not enough churches. Our task is not to control society or to become a dominant religion, but to saturate society with faith and love. To do so, we must keep on starting many new little churches.

Many believers are leaving big churches and need to belong to a church. Many famous church leaders have lost their faith or have violated God's laws. Others cannot make their big churches interesting or helpful to others. We must form believers into little churches that help them lovingly obey Jesus' commandments.

Keep methods biblical & simple

Unbelievers distrust big churches, but many will come into a little one. In many lands journalists, dramatists and false religious leaders have so slandered the churches that we must provide many little churches in which persons can learn the truth about Jesus.

Existing churches cannot absorb many new believers. Big churches do not have enough seats, enough classes or enough teachers to help many new believers. It is better to start many new little churches with new believers.

Start Churches Now

Many governments seek to suppress highly-visible churches. Countries that have an official religion or a totalitarian politic stop big churches from growing. Therefore believers must start many new little churches that can stay invisible and move when they must.

Needed new leaders emerge faster in new, little churches. Big churches and Bible schools cannot train enough new workers. In contrast, new little churches help many lay people to become effective church leaders who can help train other new leaders, in turn.

Jesus' followers inside other religions need their own new churches. Today, many thousands of Muslims, Hindus, Buddhists and animists are becoming followers of Jesus without leaving their religious community. These can start new little churches.

New little churches win many more new believers than do big churches. Little churches can easily double in size every year, and they can reproduce every year. Unbelievers who visit little churches often choose to become believers.

Little churches are oftentimes more enjoyable, and they make disciples faster. Sharing with others face-to-face is more enjoyable for most participants. Little churches help all their members love Jesus and obey his commandments in practical ways.

When the government makes churches illegal, you will know how to keep on going secretly. Where governments and religions persecute Jesus' followers, believers must start many new little churches and move their gathering places often.

Principle #3 – Keep it Biblical

What is required to start a house church?

Registration or incorporation with a government. Some governments require all organizations to register. If your government would deny or delay registration, or if it would persecute you, then you should not register.

An ordained or licensed clergyman. New churches need a volunteer leader or two, but no clergyman. A leader who loves God, the Bible and others will provide all the leadership that your new church needs.

A chapel or meeting hall. It is usually a good idea to start a new church in one of its members' homes, or in any other place where members feel comfortable and safe.

Authorization from an older church. While advisable to get the blessing from the “mother church,” no other permission is required other than what Jesus said, “Go.” Praise the Lord, if you do have the blessing and authorization from an older church. Stay connected with that church.

Start Churches Now

Money and a budget. New churches cost nothing and need no money. Members can and should sometimes give money or other things to help the poor or to support an agreed-upon project.

Gifted members who can help others. You need gifted members. Happily, every church member who has faith in Jesus receives a special gift from God's Holy Spirit and is able to help others.

New believers, who are baptized. Jesus commanded his followers to baptize all who repent. Any church can do so, even your church. All whom you baptize become members of your church the same day, or you will help them become a new little church.

The Lord's Supper. Your new church must celebrate the Lord's table often, allowing believers to commune with the Lord. No special qualifications are required of those who serve the Eucharist. Communion is powerful, but it is not magic.

Public meetings or "services." It is more enjoyable and safer to gather often as believers and friends in small numbers. Start new gatherings as needed. Between three and 23 is a good church size.

Start Churches Now

Skilled musicians. It is always better to worship in ways that everyone can participate in and imitate, using local cultural forms.

Sermons. Jesus and his apostles left us a good example to follow. They mostly held discussions, told stories and referred to their Bible.

Converts from other religions. It is perfectly legitimate for those in other religions to put their faith in Jesus and to start their own churches. Faith in Jesus is not a new religion; it is a new way of life.

Followers of Jesus. Jesus commanded his followers to help others to also follow Him. They do so by telling the Good News about Jesus, baptizing those who repent, and teaching them to obey all his commandments.

Remember, while large churches meet a vital need in big cities, providing a contemporary format and a variety of competent ministries, these require government registration, buildings, budgets and staff. Where populations remain ignorant of the Good News, the need is for small, quickly reproducing “rabbit churches” that can avoid weighty organizational details. Big churches can plant many little churches in which the unsaved can meet the Lord and be formed quickly into his loving, obedient disciples while meeting only biblical requirements.

Principle #4 - Keep it Simple

How do we start a new little church?

1. Pray often to Jesus, and he will guide you through the steps. Jesus promised that he would build his “church” and he sent his Holy Spirit into his churches to help them grow.
2. Ask a more experienced church starter to coach you. There are many others like you who have more experience, and who would like to give you advice and counsel.
3. Invite a few friends, relatives and neighbors to come together to learn about Jesus. Most new little churches start with peoples who know and trust each other. You can start with as few as two or three others.
4. Review together the life and teachings of Jesus. Especially help everyone learn the original Good News that Jesus and his apostles taught everywhere they went. It is the story of his life, miracles, death, resurrection, appearance, commandments and promises.
5. Help anyone to repent from evil and to trust Jesus for forgiveness and eternal life. Whenever individuals become new believers, help them share the Good News with their families. Baptize them and their family as soon as they are willing.

Start Churches Now

6. Agree on times and places to meet in small groups (little churches). New little churches can gather anywhere, on any day, and at any time that is convenient for their members, even if it is inconvenient for you.

7. Learn and apply Jesus' commandments. The Lord gave more than a hundred commands. The following are the main ones that the early believers practiced together:

- Honor God together ("Love the Lord God with all your heart").
- Show love to each other, to neighbors, to the poor and to enemies.
- Baptize anyone who repents and wants to follow Jesus.
- Break bread together often, that is, celebrate communion or the Eucharist.
- Give generously to help the poor and those who work hard for Jesus.
- Pray together often using Jesus' name for all kinds of needs.
- Serve others together with the skills and abilities that you and the other church members have.

Principle #5 - Keep it Obedience-Oriented

What do members of a new little church do in their gatherings?

Worship God and honor Jesus Christ together. Almost any kind of activity can be worshipful. Many believers like to sing to God, to tell each other how Jesus has recently helped them, to act out Bible stories, or to dance with joy. Do only what your culture allows.

Read from the Holy Bible. Read parts of the Bible and lead everyone in a discussion about the text, especially from the Gospels and the New Testament. Let children and adults act out Bible stories. Decide together how the church members will obey the text, together.

Pray using Jesus' name. Ask God to help with every member's needs. Ask him to help others, also. Thank him for the ways in which he helps them. Go pray for the sick to get well, for the oppressed to get free, for the needy to get from God what they need, for more families to become followers of Jesus.

Start Churches Now

Celebrate the Lord's Table.

Break and eat bread together to remember

Jesus' crucified body, and drink something to remember Jesus' blood that cleanses away sin. Do this often and let everyone have time to experience communion with Jesus.

Share with each other. Let each one meet the needs of others. Let everyone talk about God and Jesus. Let them encourage each other. Let them serve each other in practical ways. Let them give money to meet urgent needs of the poor.

Send out workers. Appoint and send those who want to go help others learn about Jesus. Empower them to start new little churches and to do with others these same activities. Hear their reports when they return. Let them train others to do the same kind of work.

Ask God for supernatural help. Pray to God to honor
Jesus by helping others in ways that only God can do.
Let him transform the wicked into the righteous. Let him heal the sick and deliver the oppressed. Let him provide for others beyond what you yourselves are able to do.

Principle #6 - Train Leaders

How to raise up leaders for new house churches?

✓ Recognize shepherds.

As your church starts to meet, watch for members who help others participate actively. If they are willing to become a leader, then arrange to coach them between gatherings, and help them plan how they will lead their next gathering.

✓ Mentor shepherds.

Whenever someone is able to gather others together to learn about Jesus, arrange to coach that leader. Call them leaders or shepherds; do not yet call them pastors or elders.

✓ Listen to shepherds.

Each time you meet with new leaders, listen carefully as each one reports on what their little church has been doing, what it needs and what are its opportunities. Jesus did this, Mark 6:30f.

✓ Train shepherds how to make plans.

Help each leader learn from the New Testament how to plan how to lead their church, and how to bring others to learn about Jesus.

Start Churches Now

✓ Pray with shepherds.

Intercede with God in behalf of leaders' church members, that God will transform them to be more like Jesus, that God will draw more persons to become followers of Jesus, and that He will raise up more new leaders.

✓ Empower shepherds.

Empower new leaders to coach newer leaders for other new little churches, as the apostles did in the New Testament. 2 Timothy 2:1-2.

✓ Name shepherds as elders or new shepherds in training.

When leaders meet the requirements of the New Testament, name them as elders or pastors. Do so in a church gathering by laying your hands upon them.

✓ Educate elders.

Provide occasional training seminars for leaders and elders, and keep yourself available to advise them whenever they ask for your help.

Principle #7 – Expect Reproduction

How can your church grow and grow and grow, then reproduce?

Keep on obeying the commandments of Jesus. God normally brings new believers into churches that obey his Messiah Jesus. Disciples are those who lovingly obey Jesus' commands. See Matthew 28:18-20 and Acts 2:37-47.

Ensure that all the church members participate freely. Where all the believers speak to each other about Jesus, unbelievers who visit the church will become convinced that they themselves are sinners. See 1 Corinthians 14:3, 24-26.

Have the believers in every little church pray and ask God often to help them reproduce, start new little churches, and raise up new leaders in new churches. Teach them that it is normal for every living church to reproduce.

Let members invite friends and relatives to visit their little church, if they would feel comfortable doing so. If the regular members of the little church become too many then let some of them start another little church along with those who wish to do so.

Recount the original Good News often and invite people to repent and trust Jesus. It is by hearing the Good News that persons often come to repent and believe. See Luke 24:45-49 and Romans 10:14-15.

Pray together often for others to come to faith in Jesus. Where possible, let two or three believers walk together in your city, praying quietly for God to show his kindness to unbelievers. Let them be ready to tell the Good News to any who ask them.

Have others take turn leading the church gatherings. Pray and ask God to let others become good leaders. When they feel ready, let them start a new church with any of the believers who want to go with them.

Start new little churches in the homes of seekers and new believers. Help local men to take the lead and teach about Jesus to their own households and friends. Coach them in the background and let them draw in their own friends and families.

Train all church members in how to start a church. When church members must move away for work, for school or for marriage, they should know how to start a new little church. Promise to mentor them, if you can.

Set up chains of leaders who train newer leaders. You cannot start new little churches any faster than you can train leaders. Mentor a few leaders and authorize each of them to mentor a few others, in turn. Keep these chains growing by starting many new little churches.

Help conventional churches to form their members into many little churches. Some big churches want to have many little churches, and their leaders may ask you to help them learn how to do so.

Hold training workshops for workers who want to start churches. Let them form temporary little churches amongst themselves, so that they can go out and do the same with other people, in turn.

Principle #8 Watch Out for Obstacles!

What are dangers that await house churches?

Some leaders from large churches may despise you and your little church. If they ask you, tell them why you start little churches and how your churches try to obey Jesus' commandments. Some new little churches will not last more than a few months. Some members will want to go into big churches; others will leave to start more new little churches. Let them do so.

Little churches cannot afford to support the leader financially, thus such a leader must work bi-vocationally to earn money.

Someone else may try to take control of the little church. "Wolves" are those who do not start new churches, yet they want others to follow them. You will have to tell wolves to stop coming to your new little church. Offer to coach them, if they will go start their own little churches.

Someone may try to teach the little church untrue or unbalanced ideas. So, help new churches make the New Testament their only standard, and help the members to test every idea by learning what the NT says. Jesus said to his disciples "remain in my word."

Someone may want to be the only teacher in the church. From the start, allow everyone to speak one to another. Thus, teach others to recognize each other's "spiritual gifts." Church members should never become mere passive listeners.

Government authorities may try to stop your church, and they may arrest you. In some hostile regions, those who start churches may have to break the law in order to obey their Lord

Start Churches Now

Jesus. However, to obey Jesus is more important than safety. Never violate laws unless your obedience to Jesus requires you to do so.

How to respond to a society which opposes Jesus' followers?

Stay in your culture. Wear your society's normal attire, keep your own names, eat only what your society approves as food, use your society's greetings, and respect your society's feasts, fasts and holidays.

Worship in an inoffensive way. Employ as many of your society's religious forms as you can with a clear conscience. Avoid most foreign forms of worship. Jesus accepts most kinds of worship that honor him.

In new little churches, limit your main worship activities to those taught in the New Testament. These include learning Jesus' teachings, praying in his name, "breaking bread" and sharing one with another. See Acts 2:42.

Search the New Testament for answers to your society's questions and needs, and affirm any of your culture's values that Jesus would approve of.

Keep praying that thousands and millions in your society will become followers of Jesus, even if many of these stay in their parents' religion for a time.

Avoid having many foreigners attend your worship events. Normally, outsiders should not teach in your new church. If some foreigners mentor you and other leaders, then have them do so privately.

Refuse financial aid. Some rich believers and some foreigners may want to supply you with money and material aid. If you can support yourselves, then decline their help.

Principle #9 – Remember Your Focus

What is the original Good News from Jesus and his apostles?

The “Gospel” or Good News about Jesus Christ is a story, a narrative of true, historical facts. The most effective way to help others become followers of Jesus remains in following three steps:

- (a) Recount this story in words, song, poetry, art or drama.
- (b) Explain Jesus’ promises with simplicity.
- (c) Invite persons to obey Jesus’ commandments.

The original Good News story is summarized in New Testament texts like these:

- Luke 24:44-49
- Acts 2:22-40
- Acts 3:13-26
- Acts 5:29-32
- Acts 10:34-48
- Acts 13:23-41
- Acts 17:1-4
- Acts 17:22-31
- 1 Corinthians 15:1-8
- 2 Corinthians 5:21

Your task is to recount the story through culturally-acceptable media, emphasizing those points that make sense to local people. The most prominent points across all New Testament texts dealing with the Good News remain Jesus’ life, death and his return to life. Emphasize these truths.

Start Churches Now

You might include any of the following details from the texts cited above:

- ❑ Ancient prophets predicted a Coming One, whom the Jews called Messiah.
- ❑ God empowered Jesus to perform miracles, freeing people from Satan's power, showing that he is Messiah.
- ❑ Jealous religious leaders and political authorities executed Jesus by nailing him to a wooden cross.
- ❑ The third day afterwards, Jesus physically rose back to life and came out of his grave.
- ❑ Jesus appeared to eye-witnesses, proving it was he, ordering them to tell this Good News everywhere.
- ❑ Jesus promised to forgive all who repent, and to free them from every kind of evil.
- ❑ All who trust and obey Jesus receive God's forgiveness, his Holy Spirit, and eternal life.
- ❑ Jesus went up into the sky from whence he reigns as Lord over heaven and earth.
- ❑ Jesus ordered his followers to baptize new believers and to teach them to obey his commands.
- ❑ Jesus will one day return to earth, raise the dead and reign as King over the world forever.

As soon as anyone repents from their old ways and puts their belief or trust in Jesus, do for them exactly what Jesus and the apostles did:

- ✚ Confirm their repentance by baptizing them, as Jesus commanded. (Mt 28:18-20)
- ✚ Add them to a new, little church, as the apostles did. (Acts 2:40-42)

When family or friends become followers of Jesus together, it could be best to form them immediately into a new little church, and have them invite in others to learn about Jesus.

Principle #10 – Use a “Menu” as you Mentor

What is an example of a Scripture menu?

Instruct new church planters in these 25 scripture menu activities. Each time you meet with a worker to train him, choose a scripture menu activity that meets a current need in a new church (for example, Send out New workers). Then, train workers from the corresponding Bible passage, as indicated by the numbers to the right of each scripture menu theme (for example, #1, 8, 9, 13, 14, 28). Mark, “tick” or circle the numbers, once completed (for example, # 9 circled would be ... #⑨).

These numbers correspond to passage on themes in the following pages. Each time you meet with trainees, review and apply one of the passages and be sure to make plans to implement that passage in a new church.

Scripture Menu for Church Planters

Numbers below refer to Scriptures quoted on the following pages.

1. Send out workers. #1, 8, 9, 13, 14, 28
2. Receive authority from Jesus. #1, 4, 8, 11, 16
3. Work without a salary. #1, 8, 9, 18

31 Bible passages to start new churches now.

1. Instruct and Send Workers

Jesus called his twelve disciples together and gave them authority to drive out evil spirits and to heal every disease and every sickness... These twelve men were sent out by Jesus with the following instructions: “Do not go to any Gentile territory or any Samaritan towns. Instead, you are to go to the lost sheep of the people of Israel. Go and preach, ‘The Kingdom of heaven is near!’ Heal the sick, bring the dead back to life, heal those who suffer from dreaded skin diseases, and drive out demons. You have received without paying, so give without being paid. Do not carry any gold, silver, or copper money in your pockets; do not carry a beggar’s bag for the trip or an extra shirt or shoes or a walking stick. Workers should be given what they need. Matthew 10:1-10

R Review one of these texts daily until you know & apply them well. Use these themes as a “tick list” or menu with your trainees.

2. Enter Houses of Peace

‘When you come to a town or village, go in and look for someone who is willing to welcome you, and stay with him until you leave that place. When you go into a house, say, ‘Peace be with you.’ If the people in that house welcome you, let your greeting of peace remain; but if they do not welcome you, then take back your greeting. And if some home or town will not welcome you or listen to you, then leave that place and shake the dust off your feet. I assure you that on the Judgment Day God will show more mercy to the people of Sodom and Gomorrah than to the people of that town!’ Matthew 10:11-15

3. Beware of Hostile Authorities

‘Listen! I am sending you out just like sheep to a pack of wolves. You must be as cautious as snakes and as gentle as doves. Watch out, for there will be those who will arrest you and take you to court, and they will whip you in the synagogues. For my sake you will be brought to trial before rulers and kings, to tell the Good News to them and to the Gentiles. When they bring you to trial, do not worry about what you are going to say or how you will say it; when the time comes, you will be given what you will say. For the words you will speak will not be yours; they will come from the Spirit of your Father speaking through you.’ Matthew 10:16-20

4. Exercise Godly Authority

‘And so I tell all of you: what you prohibit on earth will be prohibited in heaven, and what you permit on earth will be permitted in heaven. ‘And I tell you more: whenever two of you on earth agree about anything you pray for, it will be done for you by my Father in heaven. For where two or three come together in my name, I am there with them.’ Then Peter came to Jesus and asked, ‘Lord, if my brother keeps on sinning against me, how many times do I have to forgive him? Seven times?’ ‘No, not seven times,’ answered Jesus, ‘but seventy times seven.’ Matthew 18:18-22

5. Love God and Others

When the Pharisees heard that Jesus had silenced the Sadducees, they came together, and one of them, a teacher of the Law, tried to trap him with a question. 'Teacher,' he asked, 'which is the greatest commandment in the Law?' Jesus answered, 'Love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind.' This is the greatest and the most important commandment. The second most important commandment is like it: 'Love your neighbour as you love yourself.' The whole Law of Moses and the teachings of the prophets depend on these two commandments.' Matthew 22:34-40

6. Teach Believers to Obey Jesus

The eleven disciples went to the hill in Galilee where Jesus had told them to go. When they saw him, they worshipped him, even though some of them doubted. Jesus drew near and said to them, 'I have been given all authority in heaven and on earth. Go, then, to all peoples everywhere and make them my disciples: baptize them in the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, and teach them to obey everything I have commanded you. And I will be with you always, to the end of the age.' Matthew 28:16-20

Hand in hand with Jesus, every moment.

7. Train Volunteer Workers

Jesus called the twelve disciples together and sent them out two by two. He gave them authority over the evil spirits and ordered them, 'Don't take anything with you on the trip except a walking stick. Take no bread, no beggar's bag, no money in your pockets. Wear sandals, but don't carry an extra shirt.' He also told them, 'Wherever you are welcomed, stay in the same house until you leave that place. If you come to a town where people do not welcome you or will not listen to you, leave it and shake the dust off your feet. That will be a warning to them!' So they went out and preached that people should turn away from their sins... The apostles returned and met with Jesus, and told him all they had done and taught. Mark 6:7-12, 30

8. Teach Jesus' Methods

Jesus called the twelve disciples together and gave them power and authority to drive out all demons and to cure diseases. Then he sent them out to preach the Kingdom of God and to heal the sick, after saying to them, 'Take nothing with you for the trip: no walking stick, no beggar's bag, no food, no money, not even an extra shirt. Wherever you are welcomed, stay in the same house until you leave that town; wherever people don't welcome you, leave that town and shake the dust off your feet as a warning to them.' The disciples left and travelled through all the villages, preaching the Good News and healing people everywhere. Luke 9:1-6

9. Find Responsive People

After this the Lord chose another seventy-two men and sent them out two by two, to go ahead of him to every town and place where he himself was about to go. He said to them, 'There is a large harvest, but few workers to gather it in. Pray to the owner of the harvest that he will send out workers to gather in his harvest. Go! I am sending you like lambs among wolves. Don't take a purse or a beggar's bag or shoes; don't stop to greet anyone on the road. Whenever you go into a house, first say, 'Peace be with this house.' If someone who is peace-loving lives there let your greeting of peace remain on that person; if not, take back your greeting of peace. Stay in that same house, eating and drinking whatever they offer you, for workers should be given their pay. Don't move around from one house to another. Luke 10:1-7

10. Warn Faithless Towns

Whenever you go into a town and are made welcome, eat what is set before you, heal the sick in that town, and say to the people there, 'The Kingdom of God has come near you.' But whenever you go into a town and are not welcomed, go out in the streets and say, 'Even the dust from your town that sticks to our feet we wipe off against you. But remember that the Kingdom of God has come near you!' Luke 10:8-11

11. Teach More to Fruitful Workers

The seventy-two men came back in great joy. 'Lord,' they said, 'even the demons obeyed us when we gave them a command in your name!' Jesus answered them, 'I saw Satan fall like lightning from heaven. Listen! I have given you authority, so that you can walk on snakes and scorpions and overcome all the power of the Enemy, and nothing will hurt you. But don't be glad because the evil spirits obey you; rather be glad because your names are written in heaven.' Luke 10:17-20

12. Reap a Harvest

'My food,' Jesus said to them, 'is to obey the will of the one who sent me and to finish the work he gave me to do. You have a saying, 'Four more months and then the harvest.' But I tell you, take a good look at the fields; the crops are now ripe and ready to be harvested! The one who reaps the harvest is being paid and gathers the crops for eternal life; so the one who plants and the one who reaps will be glad together. For the saying is true, 'Someone plants, someone else reaps.' I have sent you to reap a harvest in a field where you did not work; others worked there, and you profit from their work.' John 4:34-38

13. Love One Another

I love you just as the Father loves me; remain in my love. If you obey my commands, you will remain in my love, just as I have obeyed my Father's commands and remain in his love. 'I have told you this so that my joy may be in you and that your joy may be complete. My commandment is this: love one another, just as I love you. The greatest love you can have for your friends is to give your life for them. And you are my friends if you do what I command you. I do not call you servants any longer, because servants do not know what their master is doing. Instead, I call you friends, because I have told you everything I heard from my Father. You did not choose me; I chose you and appointed you to go and bear much fruit, the kind of fruit that endures. And so the Father will give you whatever you ask of him in my name. This, then, is what I command you: love one another. John 15:9-17

14. Receive the Holy Spirit

It was late that Sunday evening, and the disciples were gathered together behind locked doors, because they were afraid of the Jewish authorities. Then Jesus came and stood among them. 'Peace be with you,' he said. After saying this, he showed them his hands and his side. The disciples were filled with joy at seeing the Lord. Jesus said to them again, 'Peace be with you. As the Father sent me,

Start Churches Now

so I send you.’ Then he breathed on them and said, ‘Receive the Holy Spirit. John 20:19-22

15. Follow Jesus’ Strategy

Jesus said to them, ‘The times and occasions are set by my Father’s own authority, and it is not for you to know when they will be. But when the Holy Spirit comes upon you, you will be filled with power, and you will be witnesses for me in Jerusalem, in all of Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth.’ After saying this, he was taken up to heaven as they watched him, and a cloud hid him from their sight. They still had their eyes fixed on the sky as he went away, when two men dressed in white suddenly stood beside them and said, ‘Galileans, why are you standing there looking up at the sky’ This Jesus, who was taken from you into heaven, will come back in the same way that you saw him go to heaven.’ Acts 1:7-11

16. Tell the Good News

“Listen to these words, fellow Israelites! Jesus of Nazareth was a man whose divine authority was clearly proven to you by all the miracles and wonders which God performed through him. You yourselves know this, for it happened here among you. In accordance with his own plan God had already decided that Jesus would be handed over to you; and you killed him by letting sinful men crucify him. But God raised him from death, setting him free from its power, because it was impossible that death should hold him prisoner.” Acts 2:22-24

17. Baptize Those who Repent

Peter said to them, 'Each one of you must turn away from your sins and be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ, so that your sins will be forgiven; and you will receive God's gift, the Holy Spirit. For God's promise was made to you and your children, and to all who are far away' all whom the Lord our God calls to himself.' Peter made his appeal to them and with many other words he urged them, saying, 'Save yourselves from the punishment coming on this wicked people!' Many of them believed his message and were baptized, and about three thousand people were added to the group that day. Acts 2:38-41

18. Teach Believers to Worship

They spent their time in learning from the apostles, taking part in the fellowship, and sharing in the fellowship meals and the prayers. Many miracles and wonders were being done through the apostles, and everyone was filled with awe. All the believers continued together in close fellowship and shared their belongings with one another. They would sell their property and possessions, and distribute the money among all, according to what each one needed. Day after day they met as a group in the Temple, and they had their meals together in their homes, eating with glad and humble hearts, praising God, and enjoying the good will of all the people. And every day the Lord added to their group those who were being saved. Acts 2:42-47

19. Obey God instead of People

They brought the apostles in, made them stand before the Council, and the High Priest questioned them. 'We gave you strict orders not to teach in the name of this man,' he said; 'but see what you have done! You have spread your teaching all over Jerusalem, and you want to make us responsible for his death!’ Peter and the other apostles answered, ‘We must obey God, not men. The God of our ancestors raised Jesus from death, after you had killed him by nailing him to a cross. God raised him to his right side as Leader and Saviour, to give the people of Israel the opportunity to repent and have their sins forgiven. We are witnesses to these things, we and the Holy Spirit, who is God’s gift to those who obey him.’ Acts 5:27-32

20. Enter into Others’ Homes

The following day Peter arrived in Caesarea, where Cornelius was waiting for him, together with relatives and close friends that he had invited. As Peter was about to go in, Cornelius met him, fell at his feet, and bowed down before him. But Peter made him rise. ‘Stand up,’ he said, ‘I myself am only a man.’ Peter kept on talking to Cornelius as he went into the house, where he found many people gathered. He said to them, ‘You yourselves know very well that a Jew is not allowed by his religion to visit or associate with Gentiles. But God has shown me that I must not consider any person ritually unclean or defiled. And so when you sent for me, I came without any objection. Acts 10:24-29

21. Go to those Whom God has Prepared

Cornelius said, ‘It was about this time three days ago that I was praying in my house at three o’clock in the afternoon. Suddenly a man dressed in shining clothes stood in front of me and said: ‘Cornelius! God has heard your prayer and has taken notice of your works of charity. Send someone to Joppa for a man whose full name is Simon Peter. He is a guest in the home of Simon the tanner of leather, who lives by the sea.’ And so I sent for you at once, and you have been good enough to come. Now we are all here in the presence of God, waiting to hear anything that the Lord has instructed you to say.' Acts 10:30-33

22. Tell Others about Jesus' Power

Peter began to speak: 'I now realize that it is true that God treats everyone on the same basis. Those who fear him and do what is right are acceptable to him, no matter what race they belong to. You know the message he sent to the people of Israel, proclaiming the Good News of peace through Jesus Christ, who is Lord of all. You know of the great event that took place throughout the land of Israel, beginning in Galilee after John preached his message of baptism. You know about Jesus of Nazareth and how God poured out on him the Holy Spirit and power. He went everywhere, doing good and healing all who were under the power of the Devil, for God was with him. We are witnesses of everything that he did in the land of Israel and in Jerusalem. Acts 10:34-38

23. Proclaim Jesus' Death and Resurrection

Then they put him to death by nailing him to a cross. But God raised him from death three days later and caused him to appear, not to everyone, but only to the witnesses that God had already chosen, that is, to us who ate and drank with him after he rose from death. And he commanded us to preach the gospel to the people and to testify that he is the one whom God has appointed judge of the living and the dead. All the prophets spoke about him, saying that all who believe in him will have their sins forgiven through the power of his name.' Acts 10:39-43

24. Baptize New Believers

While Peter was still speaking, the Holy Spirit came down on all those who were listening to his message. The Jewish believers who had come from Joppa with Peter were amazed that God had poured out his gift of the Holy Spirit on the Gentiles also. For they heard them speaking in strange tongues and praising God's greatness. Peter spoke up: 'These people have received the Holy Spirit, just as we also did. Can anyone, then, stop them from being baptized with water'. So he ordered them to be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ. Then they asked him to stay with them for a few days. Acts 10:44-48

25. Appoint Elders in New Flocks

Paul and Barnabas preached the Good News in Derbe and won many disciples. Then they went back to Lystra, to Iconium, and on to Antioch in Pisidia. They strengthened the believers and encouraged them to remain true to the faith. 'We must pass through many troubles to enter the Kingdom of God,' they taught. In each church they appointed elders, and with prayers and fasting they commended them to the Lord, in whom they had put their trust. Acts 14:21-23

26. Lead People to Believe and Obey

The Good News was promised long ago by God through his prophets, as written in the Holy Scriptures. It is about his Son, our Lord Jesus Christ: as to his humanity, he was born a descendant of David; as to his divine holiness, he was shown with great power to be the Son of God by being raised from death. Through him God gave me the privilege of being an apostle for the sake of Christ, in order to lead people of all nations to believe and obey. This also includes you who are in Rome, whom God has called to belong to Jesus Christ. And so I write to all of you in Rome whom God loves and has called to be his own people: May God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ give you grace and peace. Romans 1:2-7

27. Break Bread Together

I speak to you as sensible people; judge for yourselves what I say. The cup we use in the Lord's Supper and for which we give thanks to God: when we drink from it, we are sharing in the blood of Christ. And the bread we break: when we eat it, we are sharing in the body of Christ. Because there is the one loaf of bread, all of us, though many, are one body, for we all share the same loaf. For I received from the Lord the teaching that I passed on to you: that the Lord Jesus, on the night he was betrayed, took a piece of bread, gave thanks to God, broke it, and said, 'This is my body, which is for you. Do this in memory of me.' In the same way, after the supper he took the cup and said, 'This cup is God's new covenant, sealed with my blood. Whenever you drink it, do so in memory of me.' This means that every time you eat this bread and drink from this cup you proclaim the Lord's death until he comes. 1 Corinthians 10:15-17; 11:23-26

28. Let Novice Leaders Train Others

As for you, my son, be strong through the grace that is ours in union with Christ Jesus. Take the teachings that you heard me proclaim in the presence of many witnesses, and entrust them to reliable people, who will be able to teach others also. Take your part in suffering, as a loyal soldier of Christ Jesus. A soldier on active duty wants to please his commanding officer and so does not get mixed up in the affairs of civilian life. An athlete who runs in a race cannot win the prize unless he obeys the rules. The farmer who has done the hard work should have the first share of the harvest. Think about what I am saying, because the Lord will enable you to understand it all. Remember Jesus Christ, who was raised from death, who was a descendant of David, as is taught in the Good News I preach. Because I preach the Good News, I suffer and I am even chained like a criminal. But the word of God is not in chains'. 2 Timothy 2:1-10

29. Empower Coordinators to Appoint Elders

I left you in Crete, so that you could put in order the things that still needed doing and appoint church elders in every town. Remember my instructions: an elder must be without fault; he must have only one wife, and his children must be believers and not have the reputation of being wild or disobedient. For since a church leader is in charge of God's work, he should be without fault. He must not be arrogant or quick-tempered, or a drunkard or violent or greedy for money. He must be hospitable and love what is good. He must be self-controlled, upright, holy, and disciplined. He must hold firmly to the message which can be trusted and which agrees with the doctrine. In this way he will be able to encourage others with the true teaching and also to show the error of those who are opposed to it. Titus 1:5-9

30. Teach Shepherds to Serve Humbly

I, who am an elder myself, appeal to the church elders among you. I am a witness of Christ's sufferings, and I will share in the glory that will be revealed. I appeal to you to be shepherds of the flock that God gave you and to take care of it willingly, as God wants you to, and not unwillingly. Do your work, not for mere pay, but from a real desire to serve. Do not try to rule over those who have been put in your care, but be examples to the flock.

And when the Chief Shepherd appears, you will receive the glorious crown which will never lose its brightness. In the same way you younger people must submit yourselves to your elders. And all of you must put on the apron of humility, to serve one another; for the scripture says, "God resists the proud, but shows favor to the humble." Humble yourselves, then, under God's mighty hand, so that he will lift you up in his own good time. 1 Peter 5:1-6

31. Prepare Believers to Suffer

Leave all your worries with him, because he cares for you. Be alert, be on watch! Your enemy, the Devil, roams around like a roaring lion, looking for someone to devour. Be firm in your faith and resist him, because you know that other believers in all the world are going through the same kind of sufferings. But after you have suffered for a little while, the God of all grace, who calls you to share his eternal glory in union with Christ, will himself perfect you and give you firmness, strength, and a sure foundation. To him be the power forever! Amen. 1 Peter 5:7-11

“Rabbit” Churches and “Elephant” Churches

Facts:

- Smaller-sized groups allow many to participate.
- In most societies people come to Christ more easily in small groups.
- Authorities who are hostile to Christians maltreat “unregistered” churches that meet openly.
- It is easier to reach entire families by meeting in their homes.
- Children can take a more active part in worship and thus know they are an important part of the church body.
- Funds not spent on buildings can be used to send church planters to reproduce congregations.
- Small churches reproduce easily, because they have not become institutions; they have not acquired expensive equipment and traditions that are hard to pass on to daughter churches.
- “Rabbit” congregations multiply much more quickly. Believers in an average small congregation win many times more people to Christ than do the same number of believers in an “elephant” church.

Gestation time is 1-month.

Application:

Do not simply split a group into two parts. Train new leaders while the group is still small. As it grows, have one or more of these novice leaders start new groups, taking with them as many as want to go with them.

Remember:

- A church can be both a rabbit and an elephant if it lets cell groups multiply and become tiny churches within a big one.
- A church – whatever its size – is not ‘planted’ until it does the ministries that God requires of a church.
- A rabbit church leader is a TRUE teacher only if he or she helps others to do ministries. Simply teaching is not leading.

Tips for Watching out for... Wolves!

Paul warned that wolves would come from within and without (Acts 20:28-31).

- A wolf from within is a misguided believer.
- Wolves from without are non-believers who teach doctrines of unorthodox sects.
- Deal with a wolf swiftly and firmly.

How to Spot “Wolves”...

- Sharp teeth. He or she appears loving and very friendly, at first.
- Pointed ears. He is an excellent listener. He especially listens for criticism of a flock’s legitimate leaders.
- Padded paws. He sneaks up deftly by a window instead of the door, that is, without an invitation from the legitimate leader.
- Big mouth. He will come to you with a flashy, painted smile.
- Shifty eyes. He befriends weak lambs and unattended sheep.
- Slobber. Insatiably hungry, he moves on when he runs out of lambs to consume.

Jesus is the Controller and Lord, not you!

I PETER 5: 1-3

To the elders among you, I appeal as a fellow elder, a witness of Christ's sufferings and one who also will share in the glory to be revealed: Be shepherds of God's flock that is under your care, serving as overseers—not because you must, but because you are willing, as God wants you to be; not greedy for money, but eager to serve; not lording it over those entrusted to you, but being examples to the flock.

Tips for Sharing your Authority with Your Disciples...

- Encourage new believers to host temporary gathering groups.
- Allow new believers to participate from the start.
- Encourage new believers to establish new ministries according to local needs.
- Allow for mistakes.
- Orient all instruction toward Jesus as Lord.
- Hold up to new workers the hope of becoming elders.
- Pray for grace that you work yourself out of a ministry, passing it on to others.
- Keep it all voluntary and not legalistic.

Checklist of Spiritual Armor †

Model for your flock the FULL ARMOR of God every second. As Peter said, “In your hearts set apart Christ as Lord” (1 Pet 3:15).

- Wearing truth as a belt. Jesus is our way, our truth and our life (John 14:6).
- Having a “bulletproof vest” is our breastplate of righteousness. Jesus is our breastplate of righteousness: “But if Christ is in you, your body is dead because of sin, yet your spirit is alive because of righteousness” (Rom 8:10).
- Wearing our peace like boots take us anywhere, carrying the gospel of peace to others. Jesus himself “is our peace” (Eph 2:14).
- Wielding a shield of faith that wards off Satan’s fiery arrows. “I am your shield, your very great reward” (Gen 15:1).
- Protecting our heads with the helmet of salvation that protects us into eternity. Jesus is our salvation: “Therefore He is able to save completely those who come to God through Him, because he always lives to intercede for them” (Heb 7:25).
- Brandishing the sword of the Spirit, which is the Word of God.
- Maintaining constant communication with our Commander-in-Chief, praying alertly and interceding. The Psalmist exclaimed, “In return for my friendship, they accuse me. But I am a man of prayer” (109:4).

Objections from Mister Tradition

1. “We must let congregations become mature and strong before they start new ones.” (1)
2. “New congregations MUST comply with our denominational distinctives and regulations. Otherwise things will get out of control—my control.” (2)
3. “ New flocks MUST have a chapel, mature tithe payers and a proper liturgy.” (3)
4. “ Only properly educated clergymen can administer the sacraments. Otherwise baptisms will not be valid and communion will be taken unworthily.” (4)
5. “ It is important that all things be done “decently and in order”. Otherwise untrained individuals will cause problems...” (5)
6. “ All congregational leaders meet the high qualifications set by the denominational head office. This requires ONLY ordained, full-time, salaried leaders.” (6)
7. “ All believers MUST gather to listen to perfect sermons by well-trained preachers.” (7)
8. “ We MUST establish Bible schools and seminaries where the best teachers can systematically educate future leaders.” (8)
9. “ Every new congregation MUST be properly approved by the denominational headquarters and abide by its directives – my directives.”(9)

Responses to Mister Tradition

1. “Youth breeds enthusiasm. New churches breed more new churches.” (Epaphras)
2. “Young flocks must remain free to obey Christ first and then pastors second.” (Christ and Jews).
3. “Young flocks must remain free to enter the homes of unconverted seekers. Chapels may restrict access to new unbelievers.” (Peter & Cornelius)
4. “The early church baptized new believers without delay.”
5. “Yes, God is the God of ORDER, but also freedom for Spirit-led spontaneity. (1 Cor 14:24-26). “It is for freedom that Christ set us free.”
6. “Biblical qualities – yes! Man-made qualities as secondary.” (Timothy)
7. “Preach – yes. But aim for being DOERS of the Word.” (Timothy)
8. “Rapid church growth from less formality. Young flocks must remain free for pastoral trainers to respond to immediate needs of new churches and leaders.” (Titus)
9. “Approved – yes, but not meticulously CONTROLLED, as in too much “micro-management.” (Titus)

Four Church-Planting Models

1. Antioch model.

A sending congregation sends a small team to distant fields (Acts 13-14). This traveling team moved from region to region, starting the first few flocks in each region.

- They stayed in a region long enough to establish leaders, or returned there briefly to do so.
- The team did not stay to lead the congregation. Rather, they moved on to other neglected areas or returned to their sending church.

2. Joppa model:

A mother church sent helpers with Peter on a short-term trip to start a church nearby.

- Like the Antioch team, workers did not stay to lead the church; they returned to their own church.

3. Business model.

Aquila and Priscilla used a small business to start churches in neglected regions. Paul made tents to sustain himself.

- Scripture reveals that they did this in Rome, Corinth and Ephesus.
- They left their original church permanently, moving from city to city, gathering house-based flocks.

4. Western urban model.

A fairly large group permanently leaves a mother congregation to form a daughter congregation nearby, in their same culture, usually with salaried, highly-skilled leaders.

- A congregation with a large number of members may send a group that is big enough to hire a paid shepherd from the start, maintaining a worship style like the large mother congregation.

Simplicity in Worship

*“Some unwise worship leaders strut like peacocks, confusing worship with performance and entertainment!
True worshippers enter the presence of the Most Holy!”*

- ✓ Worship involves good advance planning.
- ✓ Worship involves teaching well: 1) with role playing & 2) with MENU-based theme choices.
- ✓ Wise worship leaders do not try to entertain audiences.
- ✓ For small house churches, define definite beginning and ending times. This compensates for the informality of private homes.

Checklist for Essential Elements of Worship

- Praise* that may be sung, read, chanted, spoken spontaneously, danced, expressed with a variety of bodily postures, etc.
- Prayer* which may be expressed in a variety of external forms.
- The Bible preached, read, discussed, dramatized, etc.
- Giving* of money, time, food, etc.
- Confession* of sins and assurance of forgiveness.
- The Lord's Supper.
- Loving fellowship between believers.

Tips for Mentoring New Leaders

- Train new leaders “behind the scenes,” as did Aquila and Priscilla with Apollos (Acts 18:24-28).
- Like a relay race, pass on to others the apostolic baton of authority, message and responsibility, as Paul did. Keep the baton light. Make the Lord’s work easy to pick up and pass on to others. Show your trainees how to be “doers of the Word, not hearers only.”
- Do not focus on the trainee alone, but also focus on the flock that he shepherds.
- Model – so that trainees can imitate.
- Evaluate teaching by results seen in students’ lives.

Common Errors

- Failing to pass the baton soon enough, controlling too much and too long.
- Using equipment that is too expensive or sophisticated.
- Being so generous with outside funds that believers who depend on them fail to depend on God.
- Using teaching and worship styles that require education that national leaders lack.

Tips for Making Disciples

True or False:

To make disciples, merely teach them detailed doctrine about every vital theological issue!

True? () or False? ()

Jesus said to make disciples by teaching them to obey Him above all.

True? () or False? ()

What disciple-making is not...

- Disciple making is not simply one-on-one. While doing so is not prohibited, do as Jesus did who normally worked with twelve, sometimes three and on rare occasions, one.
- Disciple making is not merely helping new believers in their spiritual life nor is it teaching biblical doctrines. Jesus and his Apostles made disciples of strong leaders as well as seekers, new believers, and growing saints, both by teaching them and by modeling Kingdom life and skills.

What disciple-making is...

- New Testament disciple making must prove highly relational.
- New Testament disciple making yields obedience to the Lord before all else.

Tips for Role Plays

- Keep role plays brief and short and to-the-point.
- Only act out main points of a Bible story; do not add things simply to act.
- Do not memorize lines, only the ideas or main point (ad lib).
- Do not let role plays drag on LONG.
- Be sure that every trainee has ample opportunity to participate in some way during various acting & role plays.
- Do it often – we learn by HEARING, SEEING, ACTING & APPLYING.
- Keep the presentation SIMPLE (no props).

- Anyone can participate – kids, adults, etc.
- Have fun! The participants will remember what they SEE & EXPERIENCE, more than what they simply hear from the pulpit.

Tips for Stories & Skits

- Tell stories, which are universally effective.
- Demonstrate historical and biblical stories by reading, reciting, singing & dramatization and role-plays.
- Remember that people recall stories for a long time. Role-plays enter not only into the brain's abstract memory banks, but also where the brain stores visual and audio images.
- Use local art forms, symbols, dramas, and music styles.
- Train new church planter trainees in a variety of settings, rather than in a lecture hall, which can be boring. Train others not simply through explanation but through demonstration.

Examples of Bible stories for skits:

- The flood (Gen 6–9).
- Faithful Israelites slew those who persisted in idolatry (Exodus 32).
- The contest between Elijah and the prophets of Baal on Mt. Carmel (1 Kings 18).
- The Lord punished those who worshipped the golden calf (Exodus 32-33).
- The ten plagues in Egypt and parting of the Red Sea for His people to cross (Exodus 1-15).

- Adam and Eve in Eden (Gen 3) or Cain and Abel (Gen 4).
- The Passover lamb in Exodus (Exodus 11-13).
- The Holy One cremated Nadab and Abihu when they entered His presence without the blood (Lev 11).
- Jesus' sacrifice on the cross (Matt 26-27; Luke 2).
- He claimed to be the Son of God and later was raised by the Eternal One from the dead (Mark 14-16).
- The Father recognized Jesus as His Son during His baptism (Matt 3).
- Suffering during trials and crucifixion (Mark 15-15; Luke 22-24; John 18-20).
- John the Baptist proclaimed forgiveness to those who confessed their sins (Matt 3).
- Jesus forgave very bad people but warned the Pharisees who trusted in their good works that they had not entered the Kingdom of Heaven (Matt 9 and 21:28-45).
- Jesus forgave a paralytic who had done nothing on his own initiative to come to Jesus (Matt 2).
- Paul promised salvation to the entire family of the believing jailer, before they heard the gospel (Acts 16:31).
- Angels announced Jesus' birth to shepherds (Luke 2).

Tips for Appointing Regional Church-Planting Facilitators

✠ QUESTION: “What role did Titus have as a coordinator? How did he monitor many ‘baby’ churches that needed help?”

✠ ANSWER: Paul trained Titus to put in order what remained to be done, and to appoint elders in every town.

✠ PRACTICAL TIPS:

- Titus had to train these shepherding elders; the rest of the letter gave him guidelines on how to do that.
- Titus had to find out which ministries were still lacking in the churches, in order to deal with them. To find what is lacking in churches requires listening to their leaders who are being trained, as they report what their churches are doing and not doing.
- It helps to keep at hand a list of ministries required by the New Testament, while one mentors new leaders, and help them to choose what is needed most urgently.

✠ Remember that the duties of a regional coordinator are to:

- Hold workshops or series of meetings to have pastoral training in neglected regions.

Start Churches Now

- Seek and train more new trainers among new leaders,
- Model skills needed to mentor other leaders.
- Provide materials that are geared to mentoring new leaders (at their level, not his!), and that aim to multiply churches.
- Keep churches multiplying, by helping trainers to mentor new leaders.
- Keep records of who is mentoring whom, where, and with what results. A large map of a region with names of mentors posted on it can be very useful. Gather information on neglected peoples, on training opportunities, and on new congregations. Use good information to 1) pray, 2) to plan and 3) to inform churches so they can pray, also.
- Extend the work to neglected peoples and regions, allowing co-workers to help plan outreaches.
- Reorganize training networks (and/or chains of relationships) whenever mentoring stops for any reason.
- Name more coordinators, who are...
 - Eager and capable to do pastoral training by mentors.
 - Not too involved in other ministries, which might distract him.
 - Able to keep on doing it for many years (not a temporarily elected position).

Also:

- 1) Avoid communication breakdown.
- 2) Avoid being aimless.
- 3) Avoid unnecessary delays.
- 4) Avoid too many unnecessary detailed by-laws.

About the authors

- O'Connor and Currah in Rahim Yar Khan, Pakistan -

Galen Currah, D.Miss., who created startachurchnow.com, has served as a trainer and mentor with field workers in several countries. He is the true “brains behind the operation” for several CPMs. Although retired, Galen continues to travel and train around the globe, and is only an email message away from valued input for CPM practitioners who take seriously Christ’s command to go and make disciples. To interact with Galen: galencurrah@paul-timothy.net

Patrick O’Connor, D.Miss., and his wife Debbie pioneered a new and vibrant movement of churches in rural, western Honduras, where they ministered from 1993 to 2009. Having grown up in Bihar, India, Patrick has now returned to “Asia and beyond”, in association with ACTION International. He trains others in more than 20 countries. Though based near Seattle, Patrick and Debbie travel and train extensively. To interact with Patrick, write to him at scn.patrick@gmail.com
