

My current theology of eternal security

Galen Currah, June 2021

I believe:

Everlasting life and salvation come from God through Jesus' death and resurrection.

"We are saved by grace, through faith ... not by works."

God wants all humans to hear the Good News about Jesus, and to be saved.

I affirm:

Those who believe in Jesus-Christ, crucified and risen, receive everlasting life.

Those who retain their faith to the end will enjoy everlasting salvation.

"That which we cannot gain by works, we cannot lose by failure."

I accept:

Those who believe may succumb to temptation and cease to believe.

Those who willfully abandon their faith may lose their salvation.

Those who repent and believe again may be saved.

I deny:

Those who seek to keep God's laws or practice spiritual disciplines earn salvation.

Those who have a moral failure lose their salvation.

No true believer will ever cease to believe.

I do not deny:

Those who keep God's laws and practice spiritual disciplines please God.

God may save some who seek him without hearing the Good News.

Those who mix good works with faith in Jesus Christ will be saved through their faith.
